Christian Classics Book Group

Our group meets on Mondays at noon to discuss books on Christianity, religion, spirituality and other germane topics. In March, we are continuing our Lenten study on the Gospel of John with “Encounters with Jesus” by Frances Gench. Copies of the books are available in the library. Please bring a bag lunch; coffee and tea are provided.

Food for Thought Book Group

This popular book group discussion is held on the first Thursday of each month, from October through May, from 5:45 to 7 p.m. Participants are invited to bring their own “brown bag” supper and the library will provide beverages and dessert. Our discussion on March 4 will be on “Driftless” by David Rhodes in anticipation of his visit to the West Hartford Town Hall on April 13 in celebration of Library Week. Copies of the books are available in the library.

Our April discussion of “Breakfast with Buddha” will take place on Wednesday, March 31 instead of April 1.

Soup & Scripture

This group meets from 6:00 to 7:00 p.m. every Tuesday from March to June. A basic meal of soup and bread is served and we read and briefly discuss scripture. We are currently reading from the Acts of the Apostles.

John P. Webster Gallery

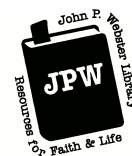

From March 8-April 5, the gallery have a display of photographs by Ron Thomas entitled, “Flowers in Winter”. Ron has captured the essence of the beauty of the prized roses at Elizabeth Park. Please stop by to view this breath of spring during its short visit to the gallery!
